ARE DEAD ONES WHEN PAST 40

Jeffries Believes Fighters All in After That Age.

DISCUSSES OSLER THEORY

PHYSICALLY HE IS RIGHT, BUT MENTALLY HE IS WRONG.

Richmond, Va., March 11.-Champion Jim Jeffries is keeping up to the times. He is playing in his "Davy Crockett" company, and no question of public interest gets away from him. Jeff's latest is to put the seal of his approval on Professor Osler. That is, the big fighter thinks Oslerism is right, to a certain extent. He doesn't go so far as to say that all men over 60 should be put out of the world by the chloroform route, but he says that, physically, a man is of little use after he has reached 40.

Jeff says that at 40 every man goes back, physically, but that this is made up to him by the fact that he improves mentally. This is the way the big bruiser puts it:

"Osler is half right. A man don't Jim Jeffries is keeping up to the times.

bruiser puts it:
"Osler is half right. A man don't get any better physically after he's 40. He goes back then, but a man don't really get intelligent until he's past 40. He gets experience after that. Physically, Osler is right; mentally, he's wrone.

wrong.

"I am not trying to get into the scientific part of this thing, and don't want any one to think that I know much about the Osler theory, but from what I have seen I think I am right. I have been in the fighting business long enough to see the effect time has on men. None of us can hold the old fellow off. We may think we can, but you can gamble all you have that he will get us shortly after we reach the forty milestone. He is the only champion that can't be put out of husichampion that can't be put out of busi-

A. H. Crai champions the property of the man he was when he rammed that fist into Jim Corbett's solar plexus. He was under 40 then. Later, when he was just on the right side of 40 he met me and I licked him. He put up one of his greatest fights then. After that he really went back. When he fought me again he had not the same hitting power, speed or strength. He was over 40 then. Later he took on George Gardner for the light heavy-weight championship, and had all he could do to win on points from him. His showing was really pitiable to those who knew him when he was at his best.

"I am 31 now, and that isn't a great."

"I am 31 now, and that isn't a great av from 40. I am hoping for anfrom 40. I am hoping for anthe time the '40' is put against my name. If I get it I think I will win, but you can take it from me that I will never enter a ring after I am over 40.

'Old John L., who is challenging Fitzsimmons, me and a lot of other heavyweights, is on the old age list, and he would not last a round with any young heavyweight.'

Riser says the matter will be taken up at once and the Chicago Boxer Says He Can Beat the Association Football Is Being Boosted By the Students of Harvard.

Chicago, March 11—Jack Root, aspirant to the light heavyweight championship of the world, is out after John Wille and Bob Fitzsimmons. Root has been in training ever since the local boxing game has closed and is in the pink of condition. "I feel asstrong as though I could whip any man in the world," says Root, "but I must take exception to Jeffries, With him out of the way, I stand ready to meet any man in the world.

"Of course, my one desire is to meet Wille again in the ring, and I will do all in my power to get some match—"It is hoped also that other colleges will become literated in the Association game at that university, and it is not at all unifiely that the new game will become well established next spring. Already challenges have been received from teams at Fall River, Worcester, Fort Warren and Harvard college, and it may be that a game will be arranged with the famous Corinthian football team of England, which will visit this country next summer.

It is hoped also that other colleges will become interested in the Association.

meet any man in the world.

"Of course, my one desire is to meet Wille again in the ring, and I will do all in my power to get some matchmaker to bring us together. I would willingly go all the way to 'Frisco if we could be brought together there. I will go farther. I will go back to the days of old and go out somewhere on the wild prairie and meet him there.

"In my estimation Wille is no fighter at all. He is a great slugger and one who is always there with the low blow. He has been hurling challenges in all directions, but ever since his last fight with O'Brien, in which he got a little more than he was looking for, he has hidden from view.

into the Beck hotel at 1 o'clock yesterday morning and rented a room. He carried nothing but a telescope bag, and shortly after entering the room he came out, locked the door and left the house. In a short time a man in an adjoining room was awakened by the smell of smoke.

He called Mrs. Beck, who unlocked the door and found the interior of the room a mass of flames. The blaze was extinguished, and the damage confined to a hole in the door and another in the floor. Marshal Mauss was notified, but Mrs. Myers, proprietor of the hotel, could give only a vague description of the whilom guest. An investigation revealed the fact that the stranger had pinned some newspapers on

CUT THE APPROPRIATIONS

Members of Legislative Committees Meet in Car and Scale Total Down Heavily.

Members of the appropriations committees of the senate and house held a meeting in Superintendent Buckingmeeting in Superintendent Bucking-ham's private car during the lake trip yesterday and gave the appropriation bill careful consideration. Committee-men present included Senators Wil-liams, Lawrence Larsen, Callister, Representatives Merrill, Tolton, J. A. Anderson and Stewart, assisted by Docket Clerk B. Bachman of the senate. It is said the committee ceeded in scaling the appropriations down to within $60,000 of the amount of revenue available, which was regarded as a good day's work. The excess was reported to be about $200,000

PEACH CROP WILL BE GOOD Fruit Growers Say Product Will Be Late But Ample in Cuantity.

Firait growers from various parts of the county in Ogden Saturday say that there is a practical certainty of a fair yield of peaches this next season, provided no further damage is done by cold snaps. The warm weather of the past few weeks has advanced the buds so that it can be seen at a glance which have escaped freezing. While many of those that were farthest advanced have been killed, the others bid fair to mature and furnish an ample crop, though the fruit will likely be a little later this season. Quantity.
